

RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL

Growing Alaska Through Responsible Resource Development

Media Kit 2024

Official publication of the Resource Development Council For Alaska

THE RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT COUNCIL FOR ALASKA, INC.

is a statewide trade association comprised of individuals and companies from Alaska's fishing, forestry, mining, oil and gas, and tourism industries. RDC's membership includes Alaska Native corporations, local communities, organized labor, and industry support firms. RDC's purpose is to encourage a strong, diversified private sector in Alaska and expand the state's economic base through the responsible development of our natural resources.

OUR GOALS

- Promote sound resource development in Alaska.
- Link diverse interests on resource issues.
- Sustain and expand a diverse membership.
- Inform the public, policy makers, and students on resource issues.

MISSION OF OUR PUBLICATION

- Serve, inform and advocate for the people and organizations of the resource development industries in Alaska
- Expand communication within and beyond our membership
- Communicate with Alaska stakeholders and leaders
- Tell the good news about resource development in Alaska
- Provide marketing opportunities for resource development and support industries

Alaska Resource Review is the official magazine of the RDC, published three times a year to inform Alaskans and others about the importance of Alaska's resource industries as well as advocate for issues critical to the success of those industries. Resource Review reaches more than 20,000 readers important to these industries, in print, at RDC events and online via digital, social and email media.
